About Me

👤 Bio

Hi! I'm James Creixems, also known as webjac.

In a nutshell I'm an experience designer | information engineer | frontend coder | handrafter | geek | speaker | bootstrapper | dreamer | living in Madrid, Spain.

I love to design great UIs and experiences so we humans enjoy the tools we use.

My motto in life is The journey is the reward, enjoy the ride. I do that by being open, real & curious. It's the key to live a happy and balanced life.

I'm open to new projects and opportunities so if you need to design & build something let's talk!
